Although the information contained in some of the above documents can be verified by mailing verifications to employers, banks, etc., obtaining the verifications can take several weeks and will significantly delay the processing of your loan. For this reason we request that you make every reasonable effort to provide the documents.

If you receive any updated documents (such as bank statements or paycheck stubs) after the time of application, please forward them to us immediately.

Thank you for the opportunity of taking care of your loan needs. I know the mortgage application process can be trying, and I will see to it that it goes as smoothly as possible. If you have any questions, please contact us.

Sincerely,

Texas Lone Star Lending, LLC
